

Conjugating -ir Verbs

The -ar and -er verbs make up the bulk of the regular verbs, but a small number of -ir verbs round out the collection. You conjugate these verbs the same as the -er verbs, except for the nosotros and the vosotros forms. The following conjugation chart shows just what I mean.

Regular present tense -ir verb endings:

yo -o	nosotros/as -imos
tú -es	vosotros/as -ís
él, ella -e	ellos/as -en
Ud.	Uds.

The present tense conjugations for a regular -ir verb such as escribir (to write) are . . .
escribir = to write

escribo	escribimos
escribes	escribís
escribe	escriben

Ella escribe. = She writes.

Although the collection of regular -ir verbs is relatively small, it includes a respectable number of verbs that you simply can't live without. Following table has some commonly used regular -ir verbs to give you some additional examples to work with.

Term	Translation
abrir	to open
aburrir	to annoy, to bore
admitir	to admit
añadir	to add
aplaudir	to applaud
asistir	to attend
cubrir	to cover
cumplir	to fulfill
cumplir ____ años	to complete ____ years
decidir	to decide
describir	to describe
descubrir	to discover
discutir	to discuss, to debate imprimir	to impress, to imprint inscribir	to inscribe, to record
permitir	to permit
prohibir	to prohibit recibir	to receive
repartir	to distribute, to deal cards